Keller Williams Realty Expands Storrs Mansfield Market The Burns Real Estate Group Joins New Brokerage Firm

STORRS MANSFIELD, CT (July 16, 2008) — Keller Williams Realty Inc., the fastest growing residential real estate firm in North America, is expanding into Eastern Connecticut with the addition of mega agents Tom & Elaine Burns in the Storrs Mansfield market.

“We’re excited to welcome The Burns Real Estate Group to the Keller Williams Realty family,” says Mark Willis, chief executive officer of Keller Williams Realty International. “We have a policy of limiting our market presence by getting into business with only the best in the industry. By maintaining our standards of excellence, we can provide Keller Williams Realty customers with the best real estate experience possible. This company succeeds through its people, and having Tom & Elaine Burns on our team is a huge win for us.”

Keller Williams Realty is a learning-based company that offers cutting-edge training to its associates through Keller Williams University. Its industry-unique, agent-centric business model includes agent leadership councils that participate in companywide decisions.

“We are proud of the way we do business and are very excited about joining Keller Williams,” says Operating Principal Elaine Burns. “Tom & I strongly feel that our local Storrs Mansfield real estate market expertise combined with the resources of Keller Williams Realty will make a strong partnership that will benefit our clients in this current real estate market.”
